

CRAIOVA,
my city

Craiova is situated in the South-West of Romania and it is one of the big cities in my country.

It is a plain area, so the scenery isn't amazing like in the mountains. But there are lots of buildings and parks in Craiova, as well as many cultural attractions.

The Art Museum in Craiova is a significant tourist attraction for the city. A major attraction of the museum is the gallery dedicated to Constantin Brâncuși. It also has a variety of paintings by important Romanian painters.

The city centre is very beautiful, with lots of old buildings and many places where we can eat or drink something.

A wonderful location is the Oltenia Museum and its Department of Ethnography (Casa Baniei).

There we will be able to see a snapshot of the region's history, traditional garments, handmade carpets and other household items, as well as a description of the local bread making process through the ages.

Afterwards,
we can take a stroll through the city center
and have a
light lunch
while enjoying the musical
fountains.

We have a great
football team,
that plays on
the Ion
Oblemenco stadium.

We can take a walk through the Nicolae Romanescu park and its zoo. It is considered the largest park in Eastern Europe.

There we can visit the Suspended Bridge, the Charmed Castle and the lake.

“Marin Sorescu” National Theatre of Craiova is more than 165 years old, and has always been one of the most important theatres in Romania. The local theater company is amazing.
