ACTIVE AND RESPONSIBLE CITIZENSHIP

Headteacher Prof. Achille Volpini

Active citizenship is a term that has been used in recent years to mean a number of different things.

What does active citizenship mean to you?

There are no wrong answers and what you say and discuss will reflect where you are coming from in relation to this subject.

INFLUENCING

CONNECTING

Making change...

Active citizenship means people getting involved in their local communities and democracy at all levels, from towns to cities to nationwide activity. Active citizenship can be as small as a campaign to clean up your street or as big as educating young people about democratic values, skills and participation. Active citizenship is one of the most important steps towards healthy societies.

ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP

taking care of the environment

Active citizenship
means to know about your origins and local history

Active citizenship is to understand the richness of diversity

It means to live together and join forces

Active citizenship is fundraising for special needs

Active Citizenship connects the schools of the five countries of our Erasmus Plus Project – Greece, Romania, Turkey, Poland and Italy, that want to make a fairer and more inclusive society

GLOBALLY CONNECTED

LOCALLY ENGAGED

Active citizenship can be demonstrated globally, nationally and locally

“Think about the generations and say that we want to make it a better place for our children, and our children's children, so that they know it's a better world for them”

Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me
And the entire human race
There are people dying If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
